

The Vegetable Growers Association of New Jersey

Denis Krowicki, President

November 2009

Dear Friend,

On January 12, 13, & 14, 2010, The Vegetable Growers Association of New Jersey will sponsor the "Atlantic Coast Agricultural Convention and Trade Show" at the Taj Mahal Casino-Hotel, Atlantic City. This will be with the support of the NJ Blueberry Association as well as the New Jersey Farmers Direct Marketing Association. There is tremendous overlap within these three branches of the industry and the blending of the organizations at the meeting enhances the event for all concerned. The Convention has had many successful years at the Taj. It is hoped that this joint venture will prove advantageous to all the members and exhibitors of all three organizations and all farmers throughout the agricultural industry. The committee has attempted to blend together a program to address needs of all aspects of the industry to create something with a wide appeal. We hope that once again you will join us to participate in the educational sessions, visit the vendors at the trade show and network with the many agricultural professionals in attendance.

Coffee and Danish each morning is a popular feature with our guests. We rely on sponsors like you to help defray the cost, and in turn, sponsors names are listed in our program booklet. Our guests comment each year about the warmth and friendship that help to start each day.

To those of you that have supported this in the past, you have our gratitude and thanks. Costs continue to rise during these difficult economic times, so once again the officers and directors reach out to participants to provide a helpful and needed hand. We would appreciate a contribution from you to help defray these expenses.

In order to include your name in the program booklet, I need to know by December 10th, 2009 at the very latest, if you will be a contributor.

Our sincere thanks for your consideration in this, and of course, extra thanks if you are able to make a contribution. Our fondest wishes for a joyful and safe Holiday season.

Sincerely,

Rocky DiGerolamo

& Trade Show Chairman
