

The Vegetable Growers Association of New Jersey

Denis Krowicki, President

September 2008

Dear Friend,

On January 13, 14, & 15, 2009 The New Jersey Annual Vegetable Meeting and Trade show will be held at the Taj Mahal Casino-Hotel, Atlantic City. The many changes implemented by the Convention Committee in the last few years have been well received. In 2009 VGA is being joined with the Mid Atlantic Direct Marketing Association. The two meetings will occur at the same time, creating a larger trade show, more attendees and a broader range of topics for the educational sessions.. We hope that once again you will join us to participate in the seminars, visit the vendors at the trade show and network with the many agricultural professionals in attendance.

The Coffee and Danish will again be served in the social area located in the center of the Trade Show. It is a popular feature with our guests. We rely on sponsors like you to help defray the cost, and in turn, sponsors names are listed in our program booklet. Our guests comment each year about the warmth and friendship that help to start each day.

To those of you that have supported this in the past, you have our gratitude and thanks. Each year costs rise significantly, so once again the officers and directors reach out to participants to provide a helpful and needed hand. We would appreciate a contribution from you to help defray these expenses.

In order to include your name in the program booklet, I need to know by November 30, 2008 at the very latest, if you will be a contributor.

Our sincere thanks for your consideration in this, and of course, extra thanks if you are able to make a contribution. We look forward to seeing you at the Taj Mahal in January and our hopes are that your business has thrived throughout the year and will continue to do so.

Sincerely,

Rocky DiGerolamo Jr.
