

The Vegetable Growers Association of New Jersey

John R. Banschler, President

November 2007

Dear Friend,

On January 15, 16, & 17, 2008, The Vegetable Growers Association of New Jersey will sponsor the "Atlantic Coast Agricultural Convention and Trade Show". Formally known as "The New Jersey Annual Vegetable Meeting and Trade Show", the meeting will be held at the Taj Mahal Casino-Hotel, Atlantic City. VGANJ spent many successful years at the Taj and are thrilled to offer the new and improved facilities to our constituents. The committee has also implemented many new changes for the 2008 Convention, most of which focus on the networking opportunities of the Trade Show. We hope that once again you will join us to participate in the educational sessions, visit the vendors at the trade show and network with the many agricultural professionals in attendance.

Coffee and Danish each morning is a popular feature with our guests. We rely on sponsors like you to help defray the cost, and in turn, sponsors names are listed in our program booklet. Our guests comment each year about the warmth and friendship that help to start each day.

To those of you that have supported this in the past, you have our gratitude and thanks. This year costs have risen significantly, so once again the officers and directors reach out to participants to provide a helpful and needed hand. We would appreciate a contribution from you to help defray these expenses.

In order to include your name in the program booklet, I need to know by December 10st, 2007 at the very latest, if you will be a contributor.

Our sincere thanks for your consideration in this, and of course, extra thanks if you are able to make a contribution. Our fondest wishes for a joyful and safe Holiday season.

Sincerely,

Rocky DiGerolamo
Convention Coordinator
& Trade Show Chairman
